MARINER '72

Harbor High School

221 Lake Avenue

Ashtabula, Ohio

Foreword

"As time goes by," we look back upon these pages and relive the innumerable events experienced during our years at Harbor High School. Time may dim those memories, but each time we open this book we will return to the halls of Harbor and be reminded of those happy years spent here.

For the seniors, graduation may appear as the end but it is really only the beginning of many new and exciting experiences. This book will help us carry with us lingering memories of fun, good fellowship, and shared experiences.

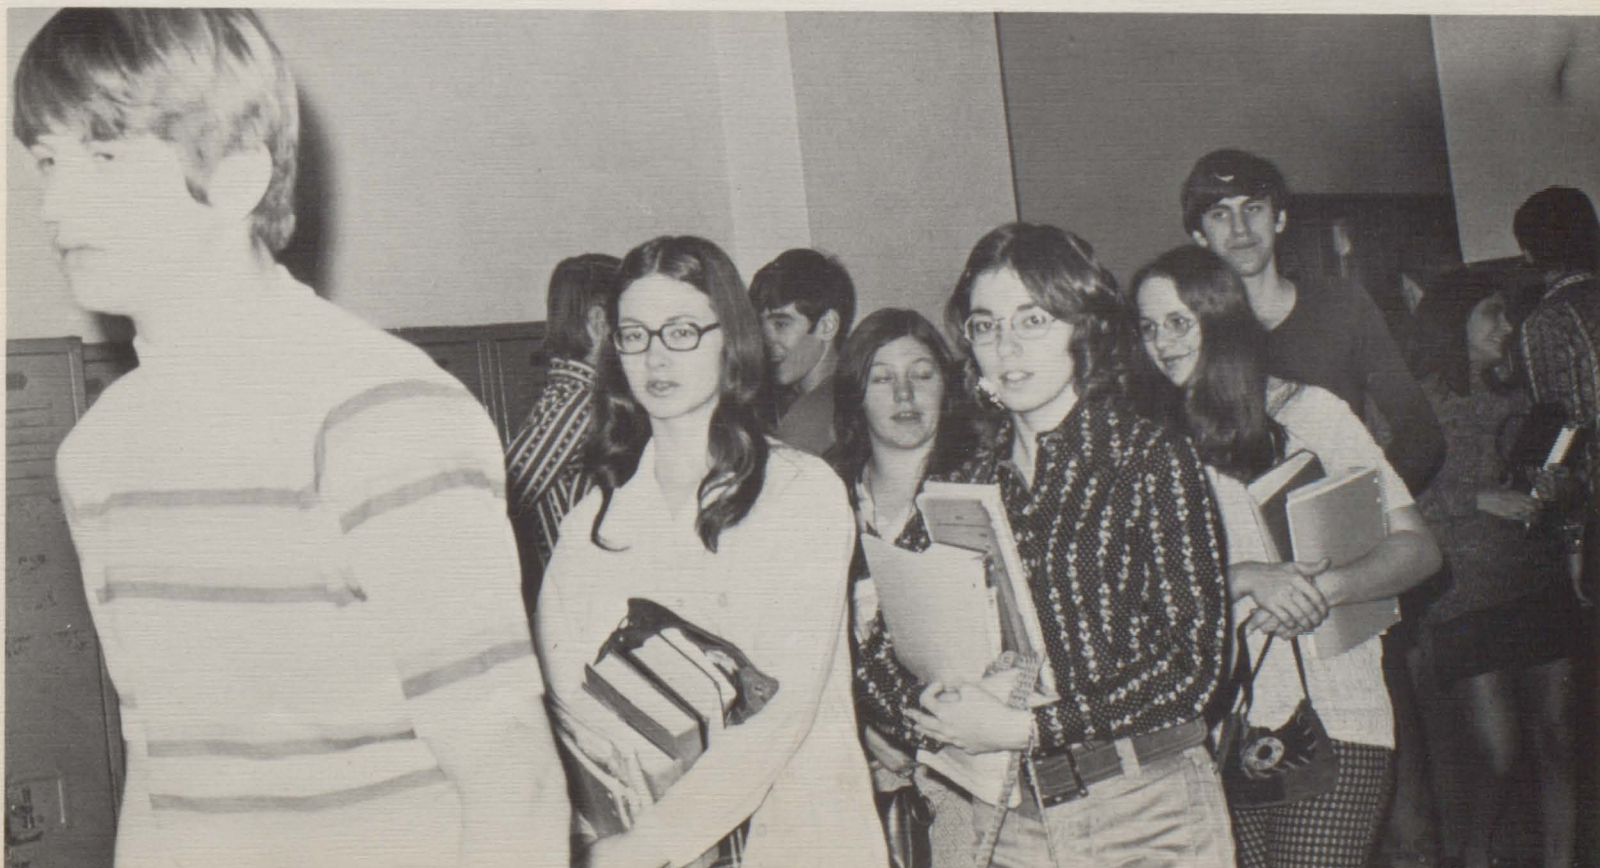

To the underclassmen, we advise you to cherish your remaining years here. Make the most of it now, for these truly are the best years of your life.

From the Editors

Debbie McElhaney, editor-in-chief, and Cathy Sharp, co-editor.

But I KNOW it's here somewhere!

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to all those people who have helped make the 1972 Mariner a success. We extend a special thanks to Miss Mary Boyce, our adviser, for all her time and help; to Mr. Pete Prentner, our yearbook representative; to Taylor Studio, our photographer; and to our staff, who worked hard and long to produce this book.

We hope that you will find some enjoyment in these pages, and that it will bring back fond memories for you "as time goes by."

Dedication

Miss Ann Monaco

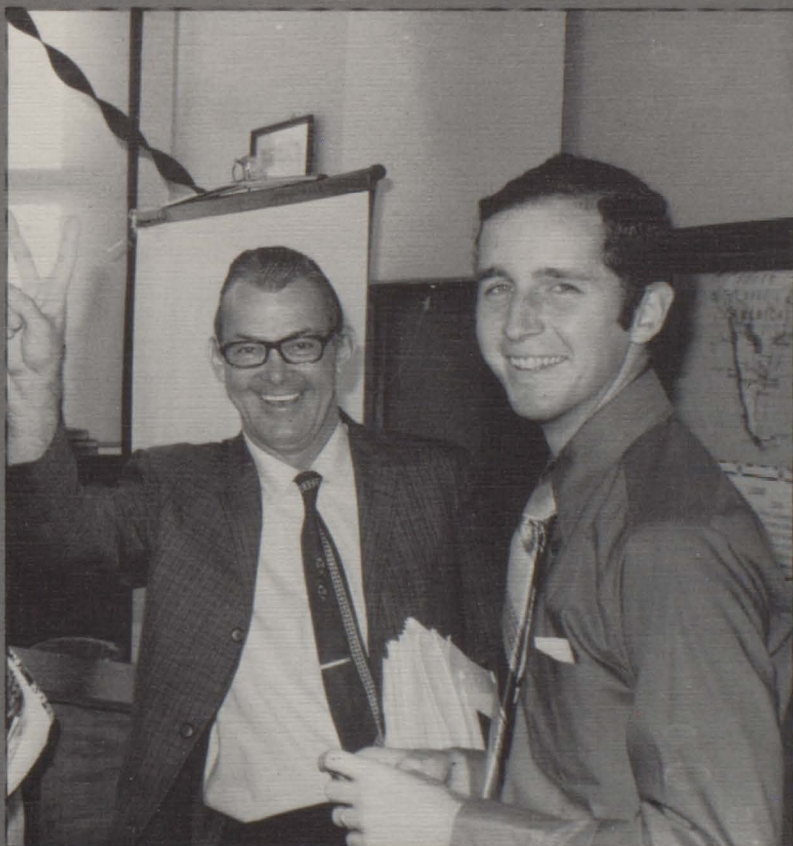

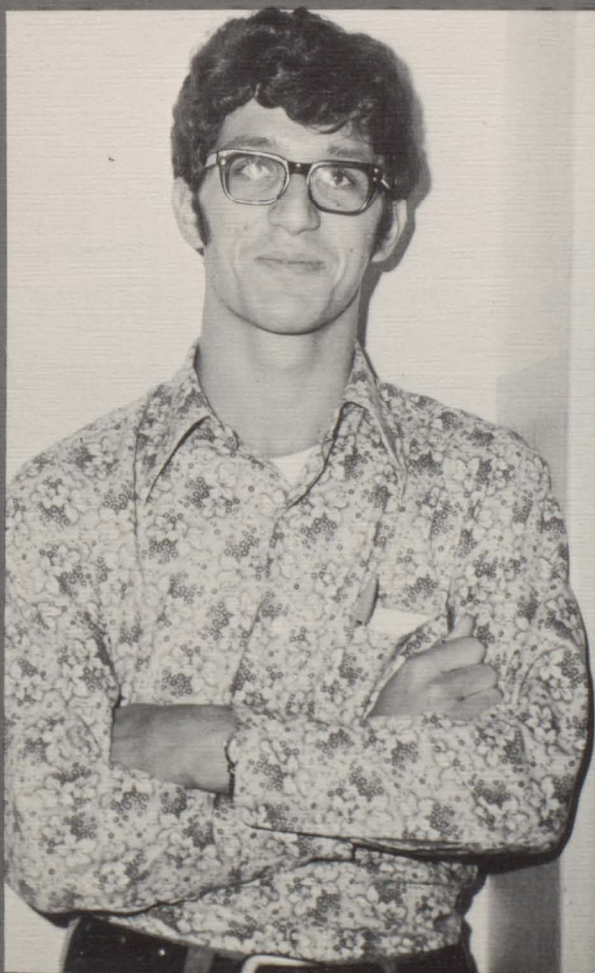

The dedication this year goes to a woman who remains in the shadows yet has done so much for Harbor High School. She is a friend to all and an indispensable necessity to those whom she advises. She is adviser to the class of '75 and the Spanish Club and was previously the adviser to the class of '71. She is probably best known for her "very active" involvement as adviser to the cheerleaders.

It is for these reasons that the yearbook staff very proudly dedicates Mariner '72 to Miss Ann Monaco.

SENIORS / Class of 1972

Senior class officers are Ted Waller, president; Caroline Dawsey, treasurer; Cathy Sharp, vice president; and Norma Thibodeau, secretary.

As seniors we are now at the end of a long voyage that took us through an awful lot during the last four years. We have been Mariners on our good ship Harbor High and have managed to some degree to navigate a successful journey and to prepare ourselves for launching upon bigger and better seas.

Our first year as freshmen proved to be a good one. We were one ahead of the upperclassmen because we knew there was no elevator in George's broom closet. What we didn't know until later was that he had a refrigerator and a pop corn machine in there. We learned our lessons well, and soon we earned our place in the hearts of all Harborites.

And as sophomores we sold photo albums, screwdrivers, autograph dogs -- you name it, we sold it. "Setting the Pace" was our new school motto, and we were caught up in the enthusiasm. We knew we had the makings for greatness, and with a little more time we were sure we could prove it.

The life of a junior was not an easy one. The rumors flew all over the school about the theme of the prom being "Moax," and we were stuck trying to define what "moax" really was. We sold candy bars to help pay for our prom. We worked hard, and we worked in secret, freezing hiding places. (If we ever see another paper flower...) But our hard work paid off. Our prom, "Through the Looking Glass," was, at least in our conviction, the most expensive, successful, and beautiful ever.

We are now the seniors of Harbor. Our class has worked hard and long, and we are gaining the respect we have earned.

Our athletic teams have shown that they are second to none. We have the right to be proud of our undefeated football team and of the other teams which have put up good fights. Our concert band added another feather to our hat when it was among 50 bands in the whole country to be invited to play this summer in Germany during the Olympics. Dramatics groups have presented lively entertainment, and all other departments have acquitted themselves well. Academic and vocational students strive hard and show great promise for the future. We were proud of the excellent showing of our "Academic Challenge" team and of the students who have won scholarships and other honors.

All in all, we can sum up our years at Harbor as years that helped us learn and grow in many ways. Harbor taught us to accept responsibility, and with that we gained the respect that will stand by us for the rest of our lives. So all of us -- vocational students, regular students, and college prepies -- say good-bye to you, Harbor, and thanks.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The junior class this year was busy with many activities.

Members of the class dominated the Variety Show, acted in the Junior-Senior class play, and, of course, planned the beautiful prom.

The sale of chocolate bars at the start of the year went well, as eager classmates rushed to sell their quota.

Class rings at the beginning of the year and the prom at the end were the big events for each junior.

OUR ACTIVITIES

*Cathy,
our Queen*

Homecoming 1971

It was a happy night for Cathy Sharp as she was crowned Homecoming Queen at halftime of the game with Erie Tech. on Oct. 15.

Members of her court were Patty St. Angelo, Kathy Vetrano, Penny Thompson, Faith Jordan, Margie Madar, Brenda Peck, Caralette Rose, and Thania Alberty. Thania, AFS student from Honduras, was an honorary member of the court.

Seniors elected candidates for the court and voted to determine the top girls. All candidates were introduced in a special assembly before final voting took place. Escorts for the assembly were Mike Goodman, Dave Millberg, Dale Stredney, Mark Wagner, Paul Palm, Craig Berteau, Mark Stenroos, Tony Masella, and Tom Bucci.

Driving convertibles at the halftime show were Craig Berteau, Jim Prisco, Tom Bucci, and Doug Hughes. Football captains Tim Sedmak and Andy Campbell crowned the queen.

She was honored at the Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Senior Girls.

"Through the Looking Glass"

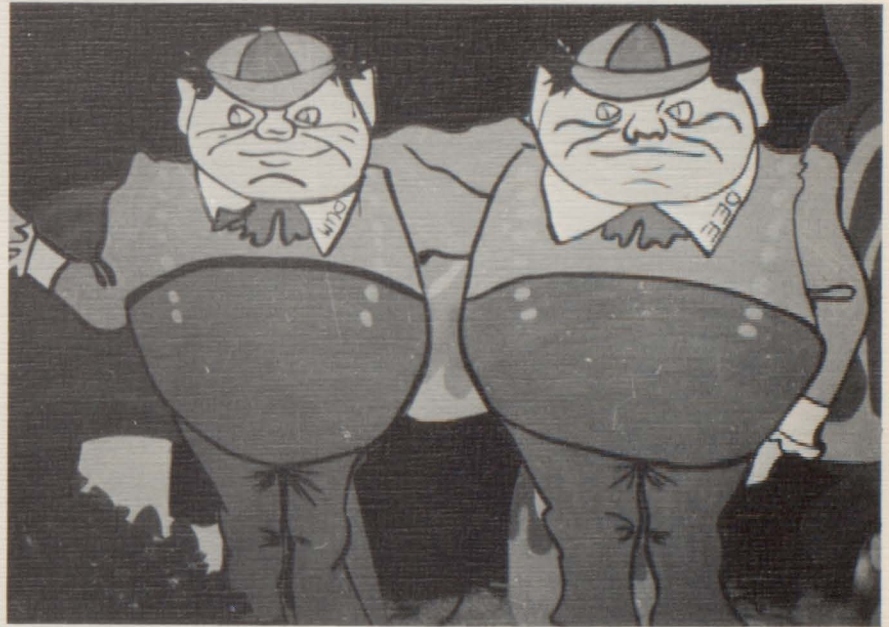

Alice in Wonderland would have felt right at home if she had been present at the prom, May 8, 1971. By Saturday evening, Fawcett Gym had been completely transformed into a wonderland of fantasies depicting the theme "Through the Looking Glass."

The junior class created a prom entirely different from past tradition. Giant mushrooms and moving mechanical figures were the centers of attraction. The delicately painted figures, rose gardens, and giant flowers which reached the bright pink ceiling, made it truly a fairyland.

Craig Ward and Ann Peterson reigned as King and Queen for the evening.

Thania Alberty

Thania Alberty is this year's American Field Service student. She comes from the Honduras in Central America, where everyone speaks Spanish.

Thania's home in America is with the Reverend Keene Lebold and his family. Her American sister, Carol, is a junior at HHS.

Life here for Thania was quite busy. Throughout the year she attended AFS functions, gave speeches, and answered many questions. In her spare time, though, she enjoyed such hobbies as bowling, swimming, and volleyball.

Thania carried a full schedule during her senior year here: English, P.O.D., trigonometry, journalism, and art. Art, her favorite subject, will also be her major in college. She plans on attending the University of Honduras, then possibly returning to America to study further.

Thania said it was quite easy to adjust to the quick rhythm of life in the United States because everyone was always friendly and willing to help. Also, her outlook on life may have helped, "always look for the good side and try to forget the bad."

Thania shows Carol what she knows.

Academic Challenge

"Ghent!" shouted by Paul Andrews just as the buzzer sounded was the answer that enabled Harbor to win the first round of "Academic Challenge", taped by WEWS on December 12. It was seen on WEWS TV-5 on January 13.

The team, composed of Paul Andrews, Ted Waller, and Doug Hughes, went against Avon Lake and Girard High Schools. The final score showed Harbor's victory of 345 points, just 20 points ahead of Avon Lake. Don Cameron, host of the show, claimed it was the closest game he had ever witnessed. The boys won a set of Colliers Encyclopedias, a school trophy, and individual trophies.

Also on the team were the three alternates, Mike Goodman, Kay Strausser, and Keith Feigh.

31st Annual Variety Show

What a Wonderful World

"What a Wonderful World" was the theme of the 31st Annual Mariner Variety Show, which was presented February 9 and 10.

A tribute to Louie Armstrong, the show consisted of songs and dances of his era. The Senior Girls opened the show with an Armstrong number and introduced Miss Varieties, Terry Puffer.

Several skits, musical solos, and of course the Dixieland Band spiced up the program. The choir traditionally closed the show with "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor," and presented the Goddess of Liberty, Caroline Dawsey.

"Oh, Promise Me"

Junior - Senior Play

A rich young playboy got his love letters mixed up, and complicated the plot of "Oh, Promise Me," the Junior-Senior class play.

Mike Goodman starred as the playboy with Penny Thompson and Amy Hazeltine portraying the girl friends. Nosy mothers and neighbors caused a commotion, and the play was filled with laughter.

Mr. James Martin directed the production which was held on November 19 and 20. He was assisted by Steve Sackman, student director.

The Mariner newspaper staff, consisting of students enrolled in first and second year journalism, publish eight editions of the newspaper throughout the school year.

A staff member's responsibilities include textbook work, reporting, writing stories, and laying out pages. Each page has an editor, and each editor has an organized team working for him. The success of the paper depends on the ability and responsibility of each individual on the team.

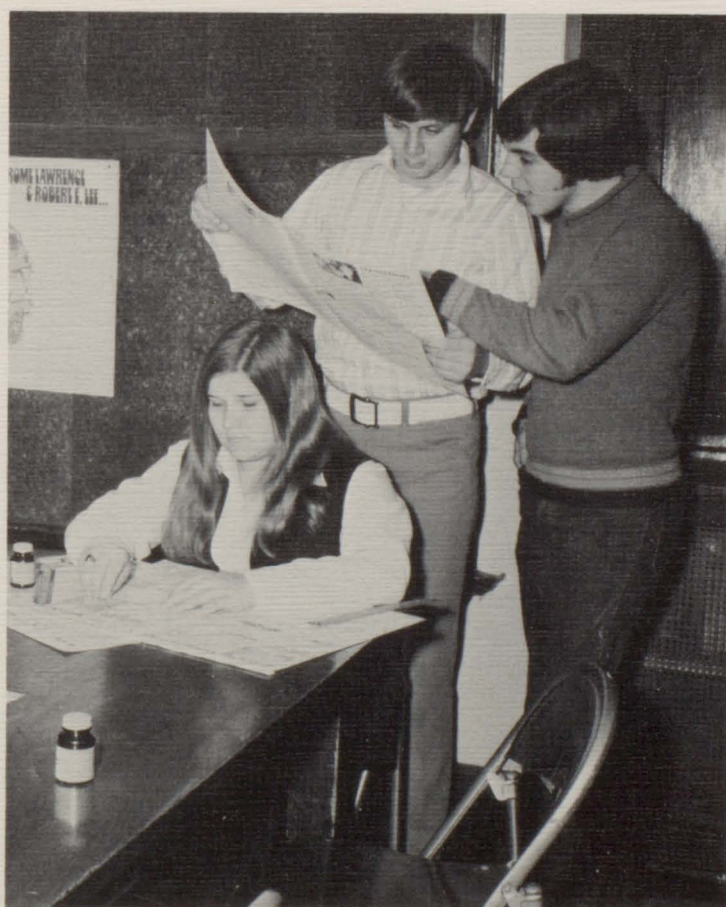

The Mariner is distributed free of charge to the student body and faculty of Harbor.

Mariner Yearbook Committees

Art

The ART COMMITTEE is due all credit for drawings and sketches in the yearbook. Working within the theme, they spent many hours planning and making rough drafts, till at last their works were complete.

Advertising

The ADVERTISING COMMITTEE was on the run at the beginning of the school year, readying advertisements, sponsors, and patrons for the '72 Mariner. The arrangement of ads was up to the committee, as well as the collection of money for them.

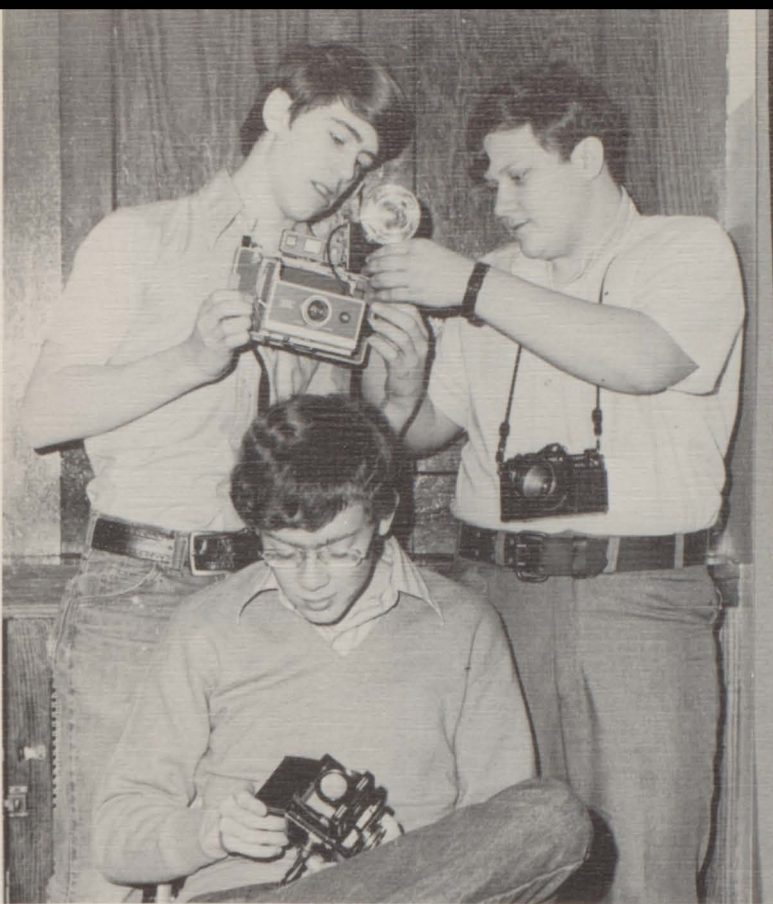

ART COMMITTEE: Bruce Neidermeyer, and Jean Wrightnour.

ADVERTISING COMMITTEE: Seated: Katie Thomas, Tina Urbana, Jim McMillan (editor), Pierre Triozzi (editor), Eric Wagner. Standing: Lou Ann Hall, Judy Clint, Raylene

Noce, Joan Chaney, Tom Turner, Carol Lebold, Robert Triozzi, Carol Grey.

PHOTOGRAPHY COMMITTEE: Seated: Gordon Evans (editor).
Standing: Ray Sill, Terry Marlin.

Photography

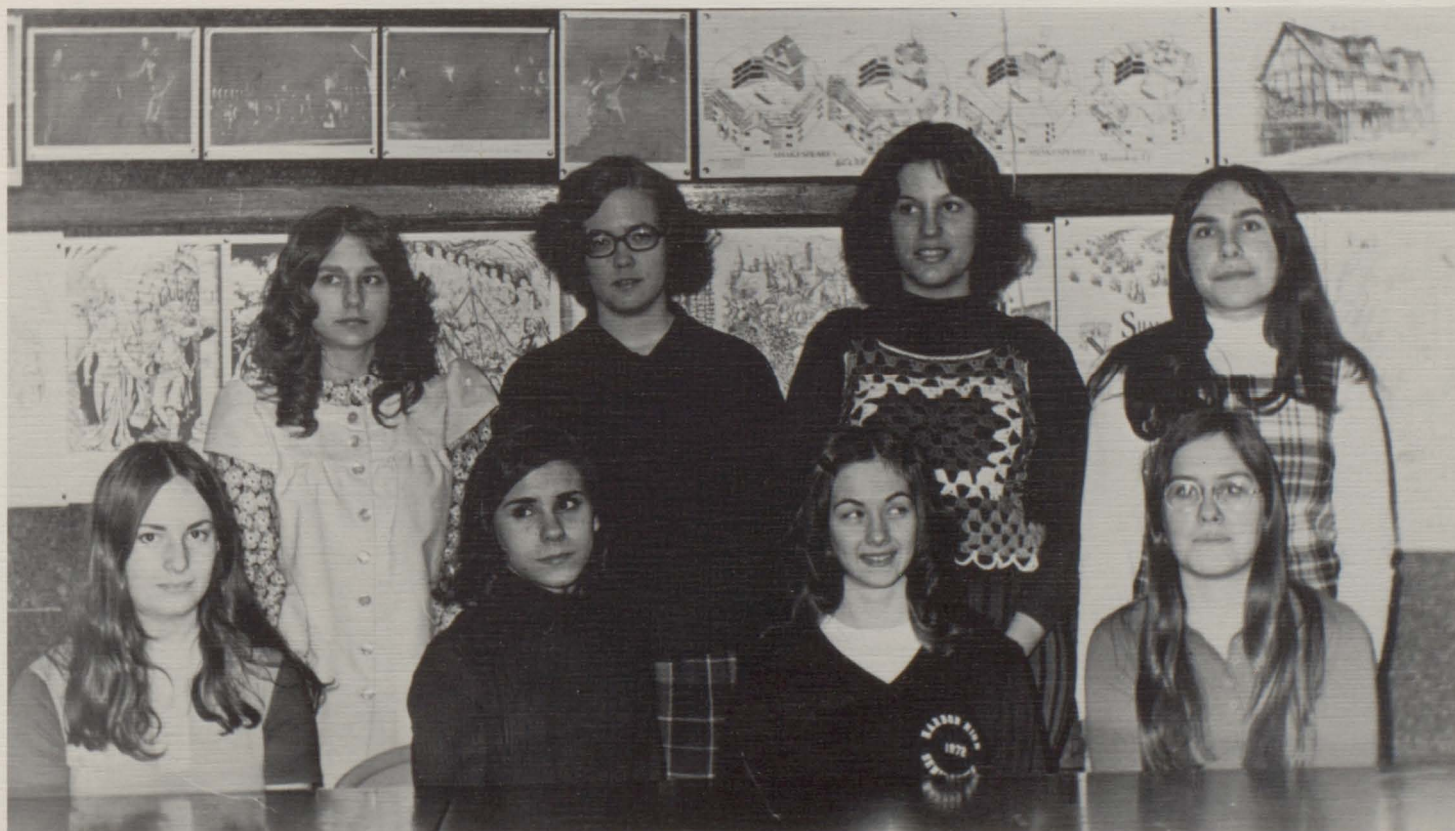

Flashbulbs popping in the corridors and top secret folders were signs that the PHOTOGRAPHY COMMITTEE was lurking somewhere. This committee was in charge of taking all candid shots and some organization photos for the yearbook.

Activities

Clubs, organizations--how many are there?! People on the ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE really did some hard work getting all clubs records and memberships together. Half hidden heads in photographs had to be identified, usually by trial-and error or by the process of elimination.

ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE: Seated: Barb Marcus, Mary Ann Branden, Brenda Peck (editor), Sue Hakala. Standing:

Barb Wright, Debbie Tormala, Sue Koski, Miriam Freilich.
Not pictured: Debbie Monroe, Terry Puffer (editor).

Senior Album

The SENIOR ALBUM COMMITTEE worked all year in preparing the senior album. Pictures had to be collected and identified, checked and assigned page space. But getting the photos was not all they had to do. The committee also had to gather material about the activities for the directory and compile it.

Subscription Committee

"Anybody want to buy a yearbook? Only five dollars" was the common cry at the beginning of the '71-72 school year, as SUBSCRIPTION COMMITTEE members went all around HHS collecting money, making receipts, and filing all orders for the MARINER. That committee was also in charge of the yearbook kick-off skits which opened the sale of the book.

LITERARY COMMITTEE: Randi Weiner, Miriam Linna (editor), Kay Strausser (editor), Sherry Lester, Katie Thomas, Carol Grey.

Literary

The LITERARY COMMITTEE does all work for the year-book involved with creative writing. They write descriptive notes about the plays, proms, and clubs, and find suitable quotations and headings for photographs. This committee is also involved with the choice of the yearbook theme.

Lou Ann Hall, Merilee Costa, Kim Wood, Rainer Kangas, Connie Millberg. Row 2: Marie Johnson, Kim Sonstebly, Sandra Hare, Sue Lebold, Laura Turner, Cathy Hazeltine, Brian Burnett.

SPORTS COMMITTEE: Seated: Jim Prisco, Keith Feigh (editor), Kathy Bevacqua. Standing: Joe Timonere, Don Reed, Susan Andrews.

Sports

The SPORTS COMMITTEE was busy throughout the school year gathering scores and data for the yearbook, co-ordinating names with photos, and getting good shots of the athletes in action.

Section Editors

The SECTION EDITORS were the basic core of the Mariner Yearbook Staff. Each editor worked in close contact with his committee in order to have his section done by the deadline date. The editor was responsible for making the layouts and organizing each page of his section.

UNDERCLASSMAN COMMITTEE: Seated: Nancy Imhoff (co-editor), Ronni Urbana (editor), Kay Peterson, Kathie Reichert. Standing: Robin Lyon, Jill Schumann, Sally Brenwald.

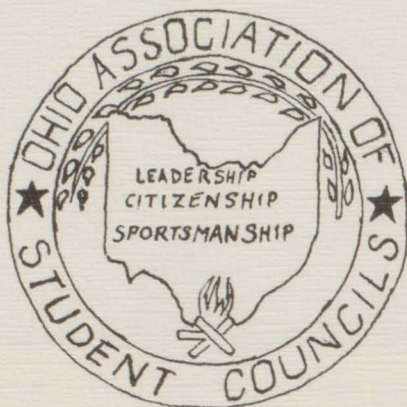

Underclassmen

Almost 700 heads to identify. Whew! and in alphabetical order! The UNDER-CLASSMEN COMMITTEE got right to work with the photographs of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, identifying and classifying them. Hectic hours were spent reorganizing pictures when a breeze blew by or someone breathed too hard.

Student Council

This year our Student Council is trying to help Harbor overcome some of the big problems it has had.

As always, Student Council sponsors dances, assemblies, and Students of the Month.

Special projects this year are windbreaker sales and a student school survey of conditions.

The officers visited the Vocational School every two weeks to help relations between Harbor and Vo-Ed schools.

The Council sent the 1972-73 officers to the annual convention in the spring.

A week of special recognition was held in January to honor members of the Council.

FTA

Future Teachers of America provides interested students with the opportunity to probe into teaching.

This is done by teaching at local elementary schools, grading papers for teachers, and hearing professional teachers tell of their experiences.

This year the club adopted a family for Christmas and had a Halloween party.

Members had a chance to earn points toward an F.T.A. pin by doing various jobs. Upon accumulating 100 points, the member received a pin.

The club held its annual picnic at the close of the school year.

Coach Robert Huff was looking forward to an even better season this year.

Dale Stredney won the Sectionals in the singles, as a junior. Dale will be helped this year as a senior by Mike Goodman, Reed Jarvi, Doug Johnson, Bob Hellman, Mark Stenroos, Tony Masella, Richard Pokky, and Mark Manupella.

Golf 1971 19-1

This year the Mariners had a near perfect record of 19 wins and 1 loss. Once again the squad won the City Series and the NEC crowns. They also managed to place 3rd in the Sectionals, 4th in the District, and 7th in the State.

Coach William Wasulko commented that the season was very successful and enjoyable.

Over the past 3 years, the Harbor linksters have an outstanding record of 56 wins and 2 losses.

Basketball 1971-1972

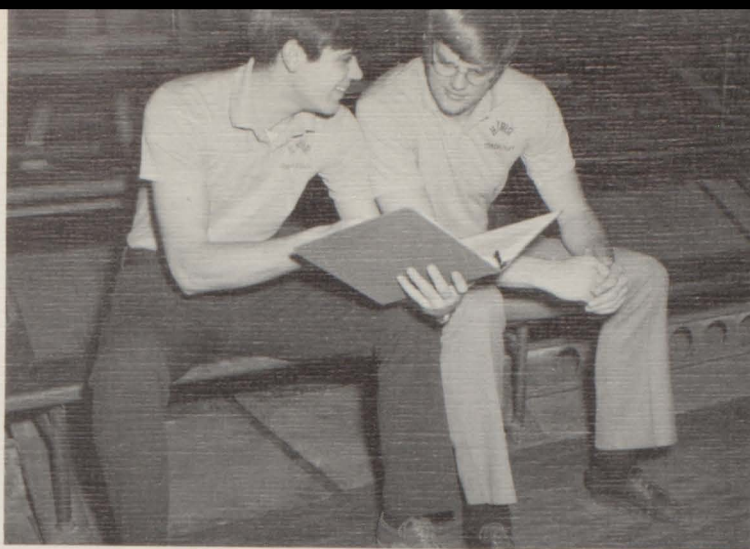

The Mariner basketball team ended 1971-1972 with a 13-5 record, the best season in ten years. After a slow start, the Mariners were able to win 9 of the final 10 games.

Coach Larry Bragga in his first year as head coach seemed quite pleased with his team's performances. Managers Dan Jones, Mark Thibault, and Dave Cook helped them throughout the season. Mark Wagner and Larry Conley were named Co-Captains of the team

The J.V.'s had to fight back for their 10-8 season by winning the final 6 games.

The freshmen also enjoyed a good season ending with a 13-1 record falling only to Geneva.

Girls' Basketball

The female cagers of Harbor again had a winning season this year. The Harbor team, under the coaching of Rita Bivens, ended their 1971 season boasting a 6-2 record, tying them with Ashtabula for the Conference title.

With all new players and only two returning seniors, it was an uphill battle beginning with the very first game. Teamwork and the true desire to win were the victory ingredients for this inexperienced team.

Jan Detore, the fleet-footed guard, was unanimously voted to reappear on the All-Northeastern Conference team for the second consecutive year. Nancy Fusco was named to the second team, with Cathy Sharp and Sue Andrews making Honorable Mention.

Jan Detore and Cathy Sharp combined to make 105 of the team's total 192 points.

Our senior wrestlers had very good individual records. Reed Jarvi and Tim Sedmak were undefeated in regular season matches in their own weight classes.

The J.V. did slightly better with a 6-4 record.
